Rhea Lana's Premier Consignment Event ~ Now in Mansfield/S. Arlington!

The mother and daughter team of Janet Sundberg and Audra Sundberg Cameron are thrilled to bring Rhea Lana's to their community. The unique consignment events in Spring and Fall offer families the opportunity to sell and shop for high quality clothing, furniture and toys at amazing prices. Audra first discovered Rhea Lana's as a shopper in NW Arkansas. She soon became a consignor. "We have 4 children and by consigning and buying early at the events each season, I was able to stretch every dollar to the maximum. It made no sense to buy retail when I could find such great clothes on consignment!" said Audra. "At the end of each sale, I simply allowed unsold items to be donated into the community. I like being frugal, but I want to give back to my community as well."

For Janet, the Rhea Lana's concept made perfect sense and she was inspired to bring the opportunity to her own community. "I was always commenting on the cute clothes my grand-daughters had and Audra would remark that the clothes came from Rhea Lana's," said Janet. "At first I thought it was a children's boutique.
